

Winston McHetz

Charlotte, NC

Phone: (704) 492-4485 Email: wmchetz95@gmail.com

Professional Summary

I am a future software engineer that is well trained in HTML, CSS, and Javascript, and I am confident that I have the ability to learn new languages quickly so I can be implemented into any team where I'm needed. My communication skills, teamwork and leadership ability are my strong suits. I believe that my skills can assist your business in your growth and revenue goals, and will be able to get much of the tech side workflow streamlined into an efficient process.

Skills

- Javascript
 - Capable of implementing an API into a webpage
- HTML
 - Skilled in semantic, simple to read HTML
- CSS
 - Skilled at web design, and can tailor the website to meet criteria
 - Websites will have fully functional mobile and tablet versions
- NodeJS
- ReactJS
 - Built an e-commerce website using React and attached a database with MySQL

Work Experience

- Salesperson - Toyota of North Charlotte
- Sales Representative - Rock Hill Nissan
- Associate - Amazon April 2020 - January 2022
- Road to Hire Coding Apprentice - November 2021, May 2022

Certifications

- Google IT Professional Certification

A fundamentals of information technology course, this gives me a significant degree of foundational knowledge about computers, servers, online security, troubleshooting, and cloud computing.

- Microsoft Office 2013 Certification
I'm able to utilize the Office 365 suite professionally, which allows me to be useful in a logistical role in addition to my capabilities in other areas like coding.

Education

- Ardrey Kell High, 2014-2018 - High School Diploma